OUR FAMILY WIZARD ORDER

This matter is before the court relative to an issue of custody. After being fully advised on all issues, the court finds that communication is an essential tool for separated, divorcing or divorced parents who are concerned with the best interest of their child/children. It is vital that the parents are able to freely, safely and accurately communicate when making arrangements according to established parenting time schedules or when interaction between the parents is in the best interest of the child/children. The court further finds that it is in the best interest of the child/children that both parties are aware of the events in the child/children's lives and that both parents have an opportunity to fully participate as parents in the lives of their child/children. Occasionally, however, it becomes necessary that the communications between parents be documented and monitored. Based upon these findings, the court does hereby ORDER AND ADJUDGE as follows:

1. Within five (5) days of the date of this Order, both parties shall establish a parent account at www.OurFamilyWizard.com or (1-800-755-9991). Each party shall enroll in the program for at least a one-year subscription, at their own cost, by completing the online sign up process or calling the toll free number provided above. Neither party shall fail to renew the annual subscription to the website without a signed and filed stipulation by both parties or a court order. Both parties shall authorize Professional Access to the Guardian Ad-Litem using the "Permission for Professional Access" document. Both parties shall also elect to receive text or email alerts about new activity using the Daily Digest or On Action option.

2. This Order is intended to require both parties to utilize this program so that their communication is documented by using the Message Board, and to provide a method by which they may advise each other of his/her schedule and the child/children's schedule and to communicate concerning scheduling issues or changes by using the program's calendar features. The parties shall thereafter not e-mail, text or telephone each other directly regarding issues relating to the child/children but shall post all communications exclusively on the website. Once they are enrolled in the program, they shall not communicate by text or telephone except regarding matters of emergency regarding the child/children that must be acted upon in less than 24 hours. In the case of such an emergency the subject and general content of any such communication shall be memorialized by both parties by way of a Journal entry in the Calendar feature.
3. All parties shall sign in to the "OurFamilyWizard" at least once per day and reply to any messages left there for them by the other parent. If a parent post a message on the website that requires a response by the other parent, such parent shall respond within 24 hours unless it is clear from the message itself that a shorter or longer response time is acceptable or required.
4. The parties are required to utilize this program fully to schedule and advise the other parent of scheduling changes or request with regard to each parent's parenting time with the child/children and such other communication that is necessary in relation to their child/children. Each parent shall update Family Wizard with all appointments, activities, practices, games, lesson, tutoring etc., so that the complete schedule for any child is visible to both parents at all times. Changes to the Family Wizard should be made the day the schedule, appointment, etc., is known to the parents.

5. The Court orders the parties to utilize the OFWpay expense feature to record and formalize all potentially reimbursable expenses in order to mitigate the necessity to litigate in the future over such matters. An electronic file of the receipt for payment must be attached to each request or record. Each parent shall preserve the original of any scanned or photographed document posted.
6. This order shall remain in full force and effect until modified by this court.
